HELLO THERE, OUR DREAM IS TO HELP YOU MAKE GREAT HAPPEN

Your career starts here

This program focuses on working with those with a lived experience of mental illness and distress, and with the many services that can be involved in their journey of recovery. This program has been designed to assist people who desire to work or volunteer within the community mental health sector. You’ll learn about working within the recovery framework, communication skills, cultural diversity, responding to risk and behaviours and assessment while supporting recovery. Upon completion of this program you will be qualified to work in residential programs, outreach programs and...
