HELLO THERE, OUR DREAM IS TO HELP YOU MAKE GREAT HAPPEN

Study online and manage your career

If you are undertaking a direct support care role within residential or community settings, this highly practical work-based program will provide you with a range of broadbased skills, including specialist communication skills, developing and delivering suitable services for your clients, advocacy, and maintaining the information systems of community service organisations. You will also develop knowledge and skills in designing procedures for support and working in ways which empower people with disabilities.

This qualification reflects the role of workers...
