It's your time to make a difference

Community Workers work with or for the benefit of the community and help ensure that the social and community fabric supports individuals and groups in the community. Responsibilities of Community Workers might include assisting the community to meet its own needs, enhancing the skills of individuals and/or groups within the community, and developing and maintaining programs to meet community needs. Community Workers mainly work either with groups (community development work) or with individuals (community services work).

HOW TO ENROL

Recognition of prior learning

Fast-track your way to a formal qualification by earning credit for the things you already know. Getting recognition for the skills you've gained from the workplace or previous learning means less study time for you, and getting the paper to prove you're qualified a whole lot sooner.
