It's your time to make a difference

Disability Workers provide training and support to people with a disability to enhance their ability to achieve greater independence, self reliance and community participation. These workers work with health professionals, other service agencies and families to plan, develop and assess clients’ interests and needs. Disability Workers may be employed in residential group homes, training resource centres, day respite centres, other community settings and in clients’ homes.

University pathways

If you want to go on to further study at university, TAFE Queensland has a pathway option to get you there. In many cases, completing one of our diplomas will give you a full year of credit towards a degree with one of our partner universities. That means cutting down the amount of time you need to complete your degree, or even enrolling straight into the second year of your university course.

HOW TO ENROL

Recognition of prior learning

Fast-track your way to a formal qualification by earning credit for the things you already know. Getting recognition for the skills you've gained from the workplace or previous learning means less study time for you, and getting the paper to prove you're qualified a whole lot sooner.
