Make a responsible decision and get the right skills

By law you are required to have a current RSA certificate within 30 days of commencing employment. On completion of this course you will receive a Statement of Attainment issued by TAFE Queensland East Coast. During this program, you will gain general skills and knowledge regarding responsible service of alcohol under QLD legislation. You’ll learn about: identifying customers to whom service may be refused; assisting alcohol affected customers; giving accurate information to customers about alcoholic beverages and types and strengths; and...
