Develop your basic English skills

This English program is designed for people on temporary visas who are not on student visas and who do not qualify for government assisted programs such as the Adult English Migrant Program (AMEP). This program is run by qualified English Language teachers in an accredited institution. Lessons are delivered in a supportive and fun environment, with class sizes kept to a maximum of 18, to ensure a personalised approach. At an advanced level, you may be prepared for the International English Language Testing Program (IELTS) test which is a requirement for some people.
